Forbes to assess Isabel's damage in helicopter tour
today

Washington, DC – Congressman J. Randy Forbes (VA-04) will join the Army Corps of Engineers this afternoon for a helicopter tour of the Fourth Congressional District and surrounding areas to assess the damage caused by Hurricane Isabel.

Forbes and the Army Corps are expected to visit areas throughout Hampton Roads, Franklin and Emporia, Petersburg, Colonial Heights, and other surrounding regions.

Forbes will have media availability after the completion of the aerial tour. Please contact Christine Shott at (202) 225-0298 for more information.

Congressman Forbes encourages residents with questions about disaster assistance information to contact Phil Infantino, disaster assistance liaison for the Fourth Congressional District, at (757) 382-0080. Forbes also has complete disaster assistance information available on his website: www.house.gov/forbes
